Outreach list: getting Kiran Global Exports onto existing lists

For Riya and Raj sir. Built 13 Nov 2026 from live web searches. Nothing has been sent yet.

This is the part of the strategy in Raj sir's video that is safe: find articles and lists that name other towel suppliers but not us, and ask the author to add us. It needs no paid tool. The third idea in the video (automatic link swaps between businesses) is not used: Google's spam policy forbids link exchanges done for ranking, and the site could be penalised.

Rules

1. Never pay for a link or a listing. Several "top 5" articles below are sponsored posts and may reply with a price. Say thank you and stop. Paid links without a "sponsored" tag break Google's rules.
2. Never offer a link back in exchange. No swaps.
3. One email, one polite follow-up after 7 days, then stop.
4. Only true facts (Part 1 of `link-kit.md`). No client names, no prices, no unconfirmed certifications.
5. Find the right address on the site itself: the article's author, an "Editorial", "Contact" or "Write for us" page. If there is only a contact form, paste the email text into the form.
6. Look for dead entries (strategy 2). Before writing, click every company link in the article. If one is broken, or the company has closed, mention it in the email (Template B). Editors fix broken links, and it is the best reason for them to add us.
7. Fill in the tracker (Part 4) after every email.

Part 1: The list

Priority: A = best chance, do first. B = worth trying. C = low chance, do last.

Group 1: "Best towel suppliers" articles (Templates A or B)

These name towel suppliers for hotels and bulk buyers, and do not name us. They are mostly written for US buyers, which matches our USA page.

Group 2: Lists of Indian and Jaipur exporters (Template C)

These list exporters by city or product. Being on them is accurate and useful to buyers.

Group 4: Trade media and industry bodies (Template D)

Not lists, but they write about Indian towels and link to sources.

16	Apparel Resources (wrote about Indian terry towel companies)	B	A quote from Raj sir on Solapur towel exports; our buyer guides as a resource

#	Who	Pri	What to offer

18	HEPC India: bath linen	C	Only if we are or become a member: ask for the member listing to show our website

Not included, on purpose: competitor company pages (Welspun, Looms, Trident and others will not list a competitor), Wikipedia (editing it to promote our own business breaks its rules), and any site asking for money.

Part 2: Emails

Replace the parts in [square brackets]. Send from exportskiranglobal@gmail.com, signed by Raj sir.

Template A: Ask to be added to a "best towel suppliers" article

Subject: A towel supplier for your "[article title]" list

Hello [author's first name, or "Editorial team"],

I read your article "[article title]". It is a useful list for buyers sourcing towels in bulk.

One kind of supplier it does not cover yet is a direct exporter from India, where much of the world's terry towelling is woven. Kiran Global Exports may be a useful addition:

- Cotton towels, bathrobes and hotel linen for importers, hotels and private-label brands
- Towels woven by our partner mill V P Mundada in Solapur, a terry towel centre, weaving since 1972
- Made to the buyer's specification, with a physical sample
  approved before bulk production, shipped FOB from India

The page for your readers would be:

I am happy to answer any questions or send more detail.

Kind regards,

Template B: A dead entry was found (strategy 2)

Use Template A, and add this paragraph after the first one:

While reading, I noticed that the link for [company name] no longer works [or: that company's website appears to have closed]. If you are updating the list, Kiran Global Exports could take that place.

Only write this if you actually clicked the link and it is broken.

Template C: Ask to be added to an exporters list

Subject: Addition to your list of [Jaipur / towel] exporters

Hello,

Your list "[list title]" is a helpful resource for buyers. Could you add our company?

Subject: Solapur towels for export: happy to help with your coverage

Hello [name],

I read your piece "[article title]". We export cotton towels and bathrobes woven in Solapur, through our partner mill V P Mundada, weaving since 1972, from our office in Jaipur.

If you cover Indian towel exports again, I would be glad to help with a comment on what overseas buyers ask for. We have also published buyer guides that may be useful background, for example:

Part 3: Order of work

- Week 1: Groups 3 (directories, 12 and 13) and 9 (Jaipur list).
- Week 2: Group 1 priority A (1 to 3), with a dead-link check first.
- Week 3: Group 1 priority B (4 to 7), Group 2 (10 and 11).
- Week 4: Group 4 and anything left; follow-ups.

Expect most emails to get no answer. Two or three yeses out of eighteen is a good result.
